Re: United States v. Mawahib O. Mohamed
07 Mag. 418 CR 503

Dear Judge Gorenstein:

I write on behalf of my client, Mawahib Mohamed, to respectfully request a temporary modification of her travel restrictions. Ms. Mohamed was presented before Judge Francis on March 19, 2007, and ordered released on a $25,000 personal recognizance bond signed by one financially responsible person, with strict pre-trial supervision and travel restricted to the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York. Ms. Mohamed wishes to travel to the Great Barrington, MA, for one day to accompany her younger sister to college for the spring semester. She will travel by Greyhound and will only need her travel conditions modified for Friday, January 18, 2008. I have spoken to Assistant U.S. Attorney Seetha Ramachandran who consents to this request; I have also spoken to Dina Naftaliev on behalf of Pre-Trial Services who has no objection to the modification either. Thus, I respectfully request that Your Honor endorse this letter as written permission for Ms. Mohamed to travel for the day. She will provide all details of her travel to Pre-Trial Services.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Deirdre D. von Dornum
Assistant Federal Defender
